County Council

SAMARITANS

Saturday 21st December is the longest night of the year, with the sun setting around 4pm.

Staffordshire County Council's Public Health Team is working with Staffordshire Samaritans on a campaign to remind people that the Samaritans support line is always open, even on Christmas Day. You can show your support by displaying a green light in your window at home. The date will be used to remind residents in need that the Samaritans are there for them during their darkest hours, including over Christmas and New Year.

Anyone can contact Samaritans for free, any time, from any phone - even from a mobile without credit. Call 116 123. This number won't show up on your phone bill.
